Congregation

Congregation 30 June

Voting on a Resolution authorising space in King Charles House to the Saïd Business School

The meeting of Congregation is cancelled. The sole business comprises questions to which no opposition has been notified and in respect of which no request for adjournment has been received, and the Vice-Chancellor will accordingly declare the resolution carried without a meeting under the provisions of Sect 7 (1) of Statute VI.

For explanatory note and full text of resolution see Gazette No 5496, 11 June 2026, p577.

Note on procedures in Congregation

Business in Congregation is conducted in accordance with Congregation Regulations 2 of 2002 (<https://governance.admin.ox.ac.uk/legislation/congregation-regulations-2-of-2002>).

A printout of these regulations, or of any statute or other regulations, is available from the Council Secretariat on request. A member of Congregation seeking advice on questions relating to its procedures, other than elections, should contact Louise Hasler, Council Secretariat, University Offices, Wellington Square (email: congregation.meeting@admin.ox.ac.uk); questions relating to elections should be directed to the Elections Office (email: elections.office@admin.ox.ac.uk).

See the Gazette website for examples of whether an advertisement is considered commercial or private.

Terms and conditions

You are advised to view our full Terms and Conditions of acceptance of advertisements. Submission of an advertisement implies acceptance of our terms and conditions, which may be found at www.ox.ac.uk/about/how-we-are-run/gazette/content-submissions/classified-advertising#terms-and-conditions-of-acceptance-of-advertisements, and may also be obtained on application to gazette@admin.ox.ac.uk.

Miscellaneous

Advertisers are asked to note that the remaining Gazettes of Trinity term will be published on 2, 9 and 23 July. The usual deadline will continue to apply (see above).

Looking for meeting space? Conference Oxford's new website makes it easier to find and enquire about meeting and event space across more than 70 University venues, including colleges, museums and libraries. New search and filtering tools help users quickly identify suitable venues, compare options and submit a single enquiry to multiple venues. The service is free to use for University members and external organisations. More information: www.conference-oxford.com.

Groups and societies

Oxford University Newcomers' Club welcomes the partners of graduate students, of academics and researchers, and of University staff, as well as others with a connection to the collegiate University such as visiting scholars. Our Membership Guidelines are on our website: www.newcomers.ox.ac.uk. We are run by volunteers and supported by the University. We provide information about the local community and many opportunities to share experiences as well as to take part in organised events and activities in and around Oxford. We meet at the University Club (11 Mansfield Rd) every Wednesday morning 10.30am–noon during 0th to 9th week, and informally during the vacations.

The University and College Union (UCU) represents over 120,000 academics, lecturers, trainers, instructors, researchers, managers, administrators, computer staff, librarians and postgraduates in universities, colleges, prisons, adult education and training organisations across the UK. UCU is the recognised trade union for University staff in academic and academic-related grades. Join today at www.ucu.org.uk to join. Contact your Oxford branch via ucu@ox.ac.uk.
